

EVACUATION PROCEDURE PALAIS DES FESTIVALS – CANNES

You must evacuate the Palais des Festivals de Cannes when you hear the following:

- In public areas, a message that says : "Following a technical incident, you are requested to proceed calmly to the Palais des Festivals exits". This message is broadcast in several languages interrupted by a sound signal broadcast.
- In zones that are exclusively work areas, the sound signal only is broadcast, for a period of five minutes.

When you hear these signals, you must leave the building via the nearest emergency exit to your workstation? and proceed to the following muster stations:

> The Esplanade des Alliés opposite the Majestic Beach for people leaving via the East and North-East sides of the building.

> The Parvis Croisette in front of Casino Barrière entrance for people leaving via the West side of the building.

UNDER NO CIRCUMSTANCES WHATSOEVER SHOULD YOU REMAIN IN THE VICINITY OF THE BUILDING AND UNDER NO PRETEXT MAY YOU RETURN INSIDE THE BUILDING unless previously authorized to do so by the building's safety officers.

To proceed to the emergency exits, follow the signs (a green panel with white lettering) and the emergency lighting showing you which way to go.
